3. Where to get guidance regarding submitting a PAIA request ^[2]

3.1. A Guide has been compiled in order to assist those who are not familiar with PAIA requests. The South African Human Rights Commission (“SAHRC”) contains information to assist you in understanding how to exercise your rights under PAIA (“the Guide”). The Guide is currently available in all the official languages of South Africa and is available for inspection by the public at the offices of the Human Rights Commission at Braampark Forum 3, 33 Hoofd Street, Braamfontein, Johannesburg, 2001.

Telephone number: 011 877 3600 or on its website: www.sahrc.org.za.

3.2. In terms of the POPIA amendments to PAIA, the Information Regulator of South Africa must update and make available the existing Guide that has been compiled by the SAHRC containing such information as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in POPIA and PAIA. The updated Guide will soon be made available for inspection by the public at the offices of the Information Regulator at JD House, 27 Stiemens Street, Braamfontein, Johannesburg, 2001.

Telephone number: 010 023 5200 or Email address: infoereg@justic.gov.za.

3.3. PAIA prescribes the appointment of the Information Officer for both private and public bodies. The head of a private body is automatically the Information Officer unless that role is authorised to another person. The Information Officer has the responsibility to deal with any requests made in terms of PAIA and is also responsible for ensuring compliance with POPIA. Radio Khwezi has opted to appoint an Information Officer. The contact details of the Information Officer are:

Information Officer	Gladson Songelwa and Dirk Combrink

4. Information that is automatically available without a PAIA request ^[3]

4.1. PAIA tries to make access to information easier for everyone. It does this by suggesting that entities, such as Radio Khwezi, voluntarily compile categories of documents and information (records) that you may request, without having to go through the formal PAIA request procs.^[4]

4.2. Information on the Radio Khwezi website is automatically available and does not need to be formally requested in terms of the PAIA request process. Our brochures, press releases, publications and marketing material are also automatically available.
